NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)
FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2009 and 2008
(Unaudited)

1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

Latin American Minerals Inc. (“Latin” or the “Company”) was incorporated under the Canada Business Corporations Act on December 9, 2003. Effective April 4, 2006, the Company graduated from a Capital Pool Company (“CPC”) listing to a Tier 2 Mining Issuer on the TSX Venture Exchange (the “TSX-V” or “Exchange”). Its principal business activities are the exploration and development of resource properties. The Company has a 95% owned subsidiary in Argentina known as Latin American Minerals Argentina S.A. and a 100% owned subsidiary in Paraguay known as Latin American Minerals Paraguay S.A. and a 100% owned subsidiary in Colombia known as Latin American Minerals Colombia S.A.

The Company is in the process of exploring and developing its resource properties and has not yet determined whether the properties contain ore reserves that are economically recoverable. The recoverability of the amounts shown for resource properties and related deferred exploration costs are dependent upon the existence of economically recoverable reserves, the ability of the Company to obtain necessary financing to complete the development of those reserves and upon future profitable production.

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of business. Certain conditions, described below, currently exist which cast doubt upon the validity of this assumption.

During the period ended June 30, 2009, the Company incurred a loss of $57,635, (2008 - $1,078,476) and at June 30, 2009, the Company had working capital of $2,934,774, (2008- $3,685,329) and an accumulated deficit of $14,604,639 (2008 - $8,468,301). The Company has incurred losses since inception. The Company’s continuing operations are dependent upon the continued support of related parties and the ability of the Company to raise equity financing. Should the Company not be able to continue to operate as a going concern, adjustments might be necessary to the carrying values of assets and liabilities and the reported results from operations.

The recoverability of amounts shown as mineral properties and deferred charges is dependent upon the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the Company’s ability to obtain financing to develop the properties, and the ultimate realization of profits through future production or sale of properties. These and other uncertainties could adversely affect the future carrying value of mineral properties and deferred charges.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and reflected the following significant accounting policies:

a) Principles of Consolidation

These consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company’s subsidiaries, Latin American Minerals Argentina S.A., Latin American Minerals Paraguay S.A., and Latin American Minerals Colombia S.A.

These subsidiaries earn no revenue and can only be sustained by receiving funds from the Company. In accordance, the Company uses the temporal method of foreign currency translation (Note 2k) to account for its integrated subsidiaries. All material intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated.

b) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash consists of deposits in banks and term deposits with an original maturity of less than three months.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (continued)

c) Reclamation and Closure Costs

The Company recognizes liabilities for statutory, contractual or legal obligations associated with the retirement of property, plant and equipment when those obligations result from the acquisition, construction, development or normal operations of the assets. Initially, a liability for an asset retirement obligation is recognized at its fair value in the period in which it is incurred. Upon initial recognition of the liability, the corresponding asset retirement cost is added to the carrying amount of that asset and the cost is amortized as an expense over the economic life of the related asset. Following the initial recognition of the asset retirement obligation, the carrying amount of the liability is increased for the passage of time and adjusted for changes to the amount or timing of the underlying cash flows needed to settle the obligation. The present value of the reclamation liabilities may be subject to change based on management's current estimates, changes in remediation technology, or changes to the applicable laws and regulations by regulatory authorities, which affects the ultimate cost of remediation and reclamation.

As at June 30, 2009, the Company did not have any asset retirement obligations.

d) Mineral Properties

The Company is in the exploration stage and defers all expenditures related to its mineral properties until such time as the property is put into commercial production, sold or abandoned. Under this method, the amounts reported represents costs incurred to date less amounts amortized and/or written off, and do not necessarily represent present or future values.

If the property is put into commercial production, the expenditures will be depleted based upon the proven reserves available. If the property is sold or abandoned, then the expenditure will be charged to operations. The Company does not accrue the estimated future costs of maintaining in good standing its mineral properties.

In the event that reserves are determined, the carrying values of mineral property interests, on a property-by-property basis, will be reviewed by management at least annually to determine if they have become impaired. If impairment is deemed to exist, then the mineral property will be written down to its net recoverable value. The ultimate recoverability of the amounts capitalized is dependent upon the identification of economically recoverable ore reserves, the Company's ability to obtain the necessary financing to complete their development and to realize profitable production and proceeds from the disposition thereof. Management's estimates of recoverability of the Company's investment will be based on current conditions. However, it is possible that changes could occur in the near term, which could adversely affect management's estimates and may result in future write-downs of the capitalized property carrying values.

e) Loss per Share

Loss per share is calculated using the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share is determined using the treasury method. All outstanding options and warrants are anti-dilutive, and therefore have no effect on determination of loss per share.

FOR THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 2009 and 2008

f) Financial Instruments

The Company's financial instruments consist of cash or cash equivalents, receivables, prepaid expenses, payables, and amount due to related parties. All of the Company's cash and equivalents are designated as held to maturity investments. The Company's interest and other receivables and accounts payable and accrued liabilities are classified as loans and receivables.

The fair values of cash and cash equivalents, interest and other receivables and accounts payable and accrued liabilities approximate their carrying value due to their short term nature.

g) Use of Estimates and Measurement Uncertainty

Estimates by management represent an integral component of financial statements prepared in conformity with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles. The estimates made in these financial statements reflect management's judgement based on past experiences, present conditions, and expectation of future events. Where estimates were made, the reported amounts for assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses may differ from the amounts that would otherwise be reflected if the ultimate outcome of all uncertainties and future events were known at the time these financial statements were prepared. Significant estimates include the recoverability of mineral properties and deferred charges, the physical and economic lives of equipment, and the variables in calculating the fair value of stock based compensation.

h) Income Taxes

Income taxes are calculated using the liability method. Temporary differences arising from the difference between the tax basis of an asset or liability and its carrying amount on the balance sheets are used to calculate future income tax liabilities or assets. Future income tax liabilities or assets are calculated using substantively enacted tax rates anticipated to apply in the periods that the temporary differences are expected to reverse. The effect of a change in a tax rate is recognized in income in the period that includes the date of enactment or substantive enactment. The recognition of future benefits is limited to the extent that the realization of such benefits is more likely than not.

i) Long-Lived Assets Impairment

Long-lived assets of the Company are reviewed when changes in circumstances suggest their carrying value has become impaired. Management considers assets to be impaired if the carrying value exceeds the future projected cash flows from related operations (undiscounted and without interest charges). If impairment is deemed to exist, the assets will be written down to their fair value.

j) Stock-Based Compensation

The Company has an incentive stock option plan. The Company has adopted the recommendation of CICA Handbook Section 3870 – "Stock Based Compensation and Other Stock Based Payments" to account for stock based transactions with employees, directors, and outside consultants. Accordingly, the fair value of stock options is charged to operations as appropriate, with an offsetting credit to contributed surplus. The fair value of stock options which vest immediately is recorded at the date of grant; the fair value of options that vest in future is recognized on a graded basis over the vesting period. Any consideration received on exercise of stock options together with the related portion of contributed surplus is credited to share capital. The fair value of stock options is assessed using the Black Scholes Options Pricing Model.

k) Foreign Currency Translation

The Company uses the temporal method of foreign currency translation to account for its integrated subsidiaries. Balances denominated in foreign currencies are translated into Canadian dollar equivalents as follows:

- i. Monetary assets and liabilities at year-end rates
- ii. All other assets and liabilities at historical rates;
- iii. Revenue and expense transactions at the average rate of exchange prevailing during the year, except for amortization which is translated at historical rates.

Exchange gains or losses arising on these translations are charged to operations as incurred.

l) Field & Office Equipment

Field and office equipment are amortized on a straight line basis over the estimated useful life of the asset.

m) Comparative Figures

Certain comparative figures for the period ended June 30, 2008 have been reclassified to conform with the current year's presentation.

3. CHANGES IN ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Effective January 1, 2008, the Company adopted the following new accounting principles:

- (a) CICA Handbook section 1535: This section establishes standards for discussing information about the Company's capital and how it is managed. Disclosure and presentation requirements pertaining to this section is contained in note 5.
- (b) CICA Handbook Section 1400: This modified section set out general standards of financial statements presentation that require management make assessment of the Company's ability to continue its operations over at least but not limited to, a period of 12 months from the balance sheet date.
- (c) CICA Handbook section 3064,: This modified section amended standards for accounting for goodwill, other intangible assets and research and development costs.

The adoption of these new accounting pronouncements had no material effect on the consolidated financial statements.

4. RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

Convergence with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS)

The Accounting Standards Board (AcSB) has announced that the Canadian publicly accountable enterprises will be required to adopt AFRS effective January 1, 2011. Although IFRS employs a conceptual framework that is similar to Canadian GAAP, there are significant differences in recognition, measurement and disclosure. While the Company has begun assessing the adoption of IFRS for 2011, the financial impact of the transition to IFRS cannot be reasonably estimated at this time.

Consolidated Financial Statements and Non-controlling Interests

In January 2009, the CICA issued Section 1601, Consolidated Financial Statements and Section 162, Non-controlling Interests. The Company is assessing the impact, if any, of the adoption of these sections on its consolidated financial statements when they will be applicable, January 1, 2011.

5. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company's objectives when managing capital are to safeguard the Company's ability to continue as a going concern in order to pursue the development of its mineral properties and to maintain a capital structure which optimizes the costs of capital at an acceptable risk. In the management of capital, the Company includes cash and cash equivalents and shareholders' equity. As described in Note 1, significant amounts of capital will be required to fund the costs to complete the exploration of its mineral properties, and to define and develop the resources. The Company prepares short term project funding requirements which are reviewed by management periodically and are taken into account in determining the funding activities required to meet the Company's objectives.
